G. O. P. Club Reports 1,006 Membership, Almost a Record

Senator J. D. Bennett Urges Election of Dewey and Slate

The Freeport Republican Club has a membership of 1,006. This was announced by Mrs. Edythe Sheehan, membership chairman, at the monthly meeting in the Legion Dug-out Thursday night. This figure has been exceeded only once in the history of the club and that was in 1946, a presidential year, when the enrollment exceeded 1,200. However, efforts are being made to equal this record before Election Day, Tuesday, Nov. 7.

Plans were announced for a block party to be held on Monday night, Oct. 30, in Railroad ave. This will conclude the campaign and numerous candidates for office are expected to visit the scene during the evening and make a few remarks. State Senator John D. Bennett, running for re-election on the Republican ticket, gave the address Thursday night. He considered the national administration, saying five years ago the nation was at the zenith of its power and with competent leadership we could have won the peace as we had won the war. Instead, he said, the war machine—the best in history—was allowed to be broken up while Russia was increasing its armament bringing on the situation that has developed today.

Nation vs. State
The Senator also referred to National spending and compared it with conditions in New York where under a business like administration the state has been enabled to balance its budget and make a surplus.

PRE-SCHOOL GROUP HEARS TALK BY DENTAL HYGIENIST

Proper care of the baby teeth will do much to insure strong healthy permanent teeth. Mrs. Harry Duff, dental hygienist, told parents of the Pre-school group of the Seaside Junior-Senior Citizens Association at their first meeting of the year. Mrs. Duff pointed out that good foods, proper cleansing and periodic dental checkups are important for all, but particularly for children. Mrs. Duff's talk was followed by a question and answer period.

The next meeting of the Pre-school parents will be held Tuesday night in conjunction with the Parent-Teachers Association.

WELLESLEY-IN-NASSAU PLANS FIRST MEETING

Episcopalians Break Ground For New $125,000 Building

Ground was broken for a $125,000 brick and stone edifice for the Transfiguration Episcopal Church Sunday morning, and the structure is expected to be completed in time to permit Easter services to be conducted in the building.

The rector, the Rev. Reginald H. Scott, turned over the first spadeful of earth to the position where the altar will be located, just west of the present edifice which is to be torn down to make way for the new structure. He was followed by Suffragan Bishop Johnathan G. Sherman, church officials, representatives of various organizations in the village and municipal departments.

Rector Scott, who presided, declared the ground-breaking was "the greatest event in the history of the parish and in my own life." The church, he added, being erected to the glory of God, was not founded by man but by God himself and so there was no greater work one could do than to build a church.

He then proceeded to turn over a spadeful of earth and among others who did so were Senior Warden Clifton B. Smith, Vestrymen John T. Calkins, Nathaniel E. Wheeler, William B. Wolfe, Arthur C. Ray, William King Tenney, Roy R. Gockley, and Raymond W. Young.

Also, Clerk Hubert L. Wells, Chester H. Smiley, president of the Rotary Club; Deputy Fire Chief Julius C. Jacob, Jr., who said he represented Chief Robert N. Kinsey, who was unable to be present; Second Deputy John S. Mans, Leo F. Giblyn, president of the Board of Education; and Village Trustee Leonard D. B. Smith, representing Mayor Robert L. Doxsee.

Bishop Sherman said that in working in the church one was working to the glory of God. Every church building, he continued, is a holy building, separated to the glory of God, a place "where you can find him in your daily life." While God is everywhere, Bishop Sherman said that "unless we have a place where we can find him we will find him nowhere."

Most of the places listed are located along the water front, but others are located along brooks which flow through the village. Each of the points is labeled either good or fair and the numbers of pieces of fire apparatus that would be required to pump the water is also indicated.

The church is to be Norman gothic in design and the walls will be part of brick and part of stone. The interior will be of faced oak trim with a red quarry tile floor in

Progress Being Made In Northeast Park

William E. Croisier, a member of the Northeast Park Commission, advised the Northeast Civic Association at its monthly meeting Friday night in the home of Harry J. Berkowitz, 218 North Ocean ave., that important progress was being made providing a playground for the area.

He said the Northeast, Northwest and Millburn Fond park projects had been lumped into one transaction and would be carried through together.

Several other matters were discussed, including the purchase of another Diesel engine for the Municipal Power Plant and the condition of the gridiron at the Municipal Stadium.

John L. Coulson was welcomed as a new member of the association. Complaint was made concerning the servicing of buses of the Dello Bus Line at North Main st. and Colonial ave., where it was contended vehicles are served on the sidewalk area.

It was voted to oppose the granting of a permit for installing additional underground gas tanks on the property at a hearing before the Zoning Board of Appeals on the contention that to do so would be extending the facilities of a non-conforming business.

9,962 Register, Only 1,274 More Than For Last Year

Total 1,767 Under 1948 and 829 Below 1944—E.D. Figures

Registration in Freeport fell below the 10,000 mark, as 9,962 qualified to vote on Election Day, Tuesday, Nov. 7, during the four-day voting period. The total was 9,962, a decrease of 1,274 from the 11,236 registered here in 1948. The total was 8,293 under the figure for 1944, the previous Presidential year, when 10,891 enrolled. In the 44th Election District, where the registration was 633, the total was only 313 more for last year. Some other districts didn't make much better showings.

The comparative figures for 1950, 1948 and 1944 by Election Districts are as follows:

Kinsey Lists Water Supply Sources Available In Event Of A Disaster

At a meeting of the Civil Defense Committee held in the Municipal Building, Fire Chief Robert N. Kinsey submitted a report listing 39 points within the village at which water could be pumped in the event that the Municipal Water Plant was put out of commission by the explosion of a bomb or other disaster.

Cyril C. Ryan, the local Civil Defense Director, commended Chief Kinsey on the report the data for which was gathered by the chief and a deputy. Most of the places listed are located along the water front, but others are located along brooks which flow through the village. Each of the points is labeled either good or fair and the numbers of pieces of fire apparatus that would be required to pump the water is also indicated.

Chief Kinsey recommended the digging of wells at several points in the northern section of the village where there are no natural waterways.

Engineer Walter J. Pope appealed for men versed in the construction line to volunteer their services to assist him in administering his division of the Civil Defense set-up. The Walter J. Miranda was named to head the transportation division and Mrs. John W. Dodd was placed in charge of the clerical force.

Board Votes Funds For Installation Of Diesel Engine

To Float $500,000 Bond Issue; Should Be Ready in Summer

The Village Board voted last night to float a bond issue of $500,000 with which to finance the installation of another Diesel engine at the Municipal Power Plant to improve the condition of the gridiron at the Municipal Stadium.

The Board of Trustees has given serious consideration to the recommendation of Sept. 21, 1950 submitted by Engineer Thomas Moore of the power plant for the purchase of new generating equipment for the Municipal Power Plant. The resolution adopted reads: "The Board feels that the urgency of Mr. Moore's recommendation requires immediate action."

Moved by Leonard D. B. Smith and seconded by Seward J. Baker and carried that bonds in the amount of $500,000 be authorized to be issued over a 20-year period for the purchase and installation of additional units for the production of electricity power for the Village of Freeport and for any other expenses that may be incurred in making this additional power available.

It was not necessary to provide funds for the new switchboard for the plant since $120,000 was granted for this some time ago.

At the regular, semi-monthly meeting Monday night, traffic at the intersection of Broadway and North Ocean ave. was again brought to the attention of the Board. George Murdock, whose home is located at the turn at the end of Broadway, complained that it had been necessary for him to erect a concrete wall across the front of his property to prevent motorists running onto his sloped. He said this wall had been wrecked 13 times in a period of years by being rammed by automobiles.

The latest time only recently, he was backed by John Schlegel and Edward Durlacher who live on adjacent property.

They recommended that Full Stop signs be installed on both sides of the curb. Mayor Robert L. Doxsee promised the matter would be taken care of.

Tuesday, November 21 from 7 to 11 p.m., was designated as Grievance Day when the board will hear complaints of property owners against assessed valuations fixed on their holdings.

Permission was given Henry Theodore Mohr Post, V. F. W., to hold its annual Callithumpian parade on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 23, starting at 8 A.M.

Yule Gifts For Men In Service Should Be Mailed Before Nov. 15

The period from Mid-October to November 15 has again been designated for the acceptance of Christmas parcels for members of the Armed Forces serving outside the continental United States with the concurrence of the several departments of the National Military Establishment.

Mrs. Mary E. Bannon, the postmaster, announced today.

The term "Armed Forces overseas" includes the personnel of the Armed Forces, members of their families and authorized United States civilians employed overseas who receive their mail through an A. P. O., care of Postmaster, New York, N. Y., San Francisco, Cal., New Orleans, La., or Seattle, Wash., or Post Office at New York, N. Y., or San Francisco, Cal.

TIME OF MAILING—The importance of mailing Christmas parcels during the designated period cannot be emphasized too strongly. The earlier, the better, Mrs. Bannon said. Parcels destined for delivery to Japan, Korea, and the Islands of the Pacific should be mailed as early as possible, preferably not later than Nov. 15, in view of the distances involved.

Parcels for Navy and Marine Corps personnel known to be in an area which would permit mailing after mid October may be deposited at a later date within the period.

SIZE AND WEIGHT—The size and weight restrictions for mailing other domestic parcel post are applicable to Christmas parcels for the Armed Forces except that a limit of not to exceed 50 pounds has been established for parcels addressed for delivery to A. P. O.'s 124 and 125.

PREPARATION—Boxes for overseas transmission must necessarily be of strong construction on account of the great distance these parcels must be transported and the handling and storage they must undergo.

PROHIBITED ARTICLES—In addition to the usual articles normally prohibited in the mails, matches of all kinds and lighter fluid are unmailable.

CHRISTMAS CARDS—Greeting cards for Armed Forces personnel overseas may be mailed at any time, but patrons should deposit such cards prior to Nov. 15, if they are to have a reasonable expectation of delivery prior to Christmas.

Greeting cards for Army and Air Force personnel overseas must be sent in sealed envelopes and prepaid at the first-class rate. Cards prepaid at less than the full first-class rate are handled as short-paid matter.

Postal money orders are recommended for the transmission of money gifts to members of the Armed Forces overseas outside the continental United States.

Domestic Postal Orders can be cashed in A. P. O.'s and N. P. O.'s wherever the Forces are located. Patrons are advised that the exportation of currency to overseas A. P. O.'s or between A. P. O.'s where the dollar is not the accepted medium of exchange is prohibited. Currency therefore should not be sent to A. P. O.'s except those A. P. O.'s which are branches of the Post Offices at New Orleans, La., and Seattle, Wash.

For further information see your local postmaster.

The Leader Bookshelf

By MRS. ELIZABETH F. KELLY
Librarian, Freeport Memorial Library

"Belles on Their Toes" (Thomas Y. Crowell, Co. $3.00). Written by the authors of "Cheaper by the Dozen," Frank B. Gilbreth, Jr., and Ernestine Gilbreth Carey, is the continuation of the Gilbreth's story. Mrs. Gilbreth, in sailing to Europe to fulfill her husband's speaking engagements following his sudden death, began a career which was to continue the work which he had begun. In their home at Montclair, New Jersey, the children, all twelve of them, organized and using the advice and training which had been given them by their father, managed to carry on. "Each older child besides being responsible for himself, was responsible for a younger child. Three were in the intermediate group—old enough to look out for themselves, but not old enough to help anyone else."

Although it was necessary to dismiss the cook, Tom, who had been with them for many years, was kept on. His advice was usually unreliable, but they could not have gotten along without him. The budget was always on their minds, and, as each Gilbreth grew older to the point of leaving home, the next in line took charge of the household while Mrs. Gilbreth was away on business. Martha, the third daughter, was especially efficient. She had many contacts—"the mayor, mayor's secretary, librarians, store managers, motormen, policemen, delivery boys, and firemen." Without too much effort, Martha managed to get more for her money. "Belles on their Toes" is fun to read. At the same time, the reader will feel the real meaning of family living, as youngsters grow into adulthood, sharing their experiences and responsibilities.

Richard Grossman's "A New Leash on Life" (Random House, 1950, $2.00) has put canine members of our citizenry right out front. Herman, the Boxer, a veteran of the E-K Corps, has experiences that shouldn't happen to a man! It all started when Herman, a decorated hero, applies for a college education under the G. I. bill. Just because he was a dog, everybody wanted to know WHY. As he wages war on the western front Herman's adventures, his love affairs, even his battle fatigue parallel man's. Only Herman's experiences are funnier. There's Berenice, a royal Beagle and his true love—there's Nadia, the sleek and seductive Russian wolfhound. Is it any wonder that Herman's many and pressing problems eventually land him under a psychiatrist's couch?

St. George Ass'n. Has Communion Breakfast

Members of the St. George Association representing the civil service employees and telephone workers of Nassau County held a communion breakfast in the Elks clubhouse Sunday, October 8 after attending a service in the Freeport Methodist Church. They constituted the members of Chapters 20 and 24 of the organization. The Rev. C. Newman Hogle, pastor of the church addressed the men.

At the communion breakfast the address was given by the Rev. Arthur J. Pennell, retired Methodist pastor, while the Rev. W. H. Bennett gave the invocation and pronounced the benediction. Village Trustee Seward J. Baker welcomed the members of the association to Freeport as the representative of the Village Board.

County Judge Henry J. A. Collins spoke on "Juvenile Delinquency." He cautioned against drinking saying that one drink might lead to serious consequences. He also urged church attendance on the part of the youth of the land.

Pastor Hogle Talks To High School P-T.A.

The Rev. C. Newman Hogle, pastor of the Freeport Methodist Church, spoke at a general meeting of the Freeport Junior-Senior Parent Teacher Association in the school gymnasium. He was introduced by Ralph L. Marshall, the program chairman.

Mr. Hogle said the emotional education of the school children was important, but was being neglected. He added that children from 12 to 18 need guidance and emotional help. He continued that parents must help their children in making important choices of life, the philosophy of life, in selecting a mate or in their relationship with the opposite sex and in picking a vocation.

He pointed out four steps in the development of love: admiration, friendship, infatuation and love itself. He said there was nothing wrong with infatuation, but that it was not love and added that it was this stage the youth or maid needed the greatest help. Mr. Hogle described love as a sense of responsibility for ones self and another. Mrs. Peter J. Gault, Sr., announced the plans of the Metropolitan Opera Guild. She said two P-T.A. scholarships were to be offered and that opportunity would be afforded 80 students to attend performances during the coming season.

Business Women Arrange Exhibit Of Their Lines In Memorial Library

In observation of National Business Women's Week, the Freeport Memorial Library in cooperation with several business women has arranged a display of various types of businesses in which women are engaged.

Featured are miniature bathrooms with walls of hand-painted tiles. These rooms were made by Miss Anna K. Fritz who has a plumbing business and the tiles were painted by another business woman.

Mrs. Louise Brakthwaite loaned a double desk set and a box of Chinese stationery as signs of her wares. The ingenuity of women at home is shown through the applied aprons and stuffed toys of Mrs. F. Gordon Edwards and through Mrs. Beatrice Dana's many and varied types of hand-made dolls.

which may be seen in both the Adult and Juvenile departments. Miss Annola Stanton whose daily business is in a busy office has loaned an exhibit of the equipment she used in her hobby of bee-keeping. The Lenker sisters and Miss Adams, Freeport women who are engaged in the raising and selling of flowers have loaned respectively a fern and an arrangement of various dried floral materials and gourds.

Mrs. Jane Fenyo, one of Freeport's outstanding artists, obligingly arranged an exhibit of the work of Mrs. Ruth Kamke, costume jewelry designer.

Mrs. Fenyo has effectively arranged on black velvet a partial collection of various types and sizes of stones used. Included are original design drawings, exactly the size of the finished pieces. These designs are made as working models for the craftsmen who actually make the pieces. The drawings are done in lead pencil, rendered in tempera paints and water color on tracing paper.

The development of a design from the working drawing through its several stages to the finished piece is shown, along with an "ad" for September Harper's Bazaar, where it appeared. There are also a few finished pieces of Mrs. Kamke's many designs.

Mrs. Elizabeth F. Kelly, librarian, announced that the exhibit would remain at the library through Oct. 28.

Larger local calling areas make the telephone a bigger bargain

Baldwin 3 and Freeport 8 and 9 subscribers can now reach at least 120,000 telephones without an extra charge. That's nearly four times as many as most of them could call a few months ago.

At the same time, the value of the telephone has been increased another way. The rates from Baldwin 3 and Freeport 8 and 9 telephones to many places in Nassau County, New York City and Southern Westchester have been reduced 5c or more, depending upon the point called.

Yes, the value is up! Most of you can reach more friends, relatives or customers, and they can reach you, with a local call. Yet the price you pay for service today is actually a much smaller part of the family budget than it was five years ago.
